

DUTCH STEAMER BURNED CARGO

Her Fuel Gave Out and She Made Steam With Logwood.

POLICEMAN TOWNLEY'S CASE

Philip McIntyre Will be Arrested in New York for Passing a Worthless Draft in Norfolk.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, VA., Jan. 31.—The Dutch steamship Constance arrived here today from Montevideo, after a severe experience, during which she had to jettison a portion of her cargo logwood consigned to New York for the manufacture of dyes. Five days out from Norfolk the Constance's fuel gave out, and she had to burn in her furnaces enough of her valuable cargo to make port. The vessel shows signs of several experiences at sea, and her crew told a long story of continued hardship.
The Constance, after calling at Lambert's Point, taking enough coal to carry her to New York, where she will go to-morrow.

DIED FROM EXPOSURE.
L. S. Perry, colored, supposed to be from Bryan, N. C., and found unconscious by the Norfolk and Western railway track near Fairmount Park yesterday, died in the buggy of County Constable Hayes while the latter was carrying the man to the office of County Magistrate J. S. Carmine, in Huntersville.
A coroner's jury rendered a verdict of death from exposure.

Philip McIntyre, who was arrested last Sunday in New York upon the arrival of a steamer from Vera Cruz on a charge of passing a worthless draft for $500 on a bank in the city of Mexico, will soon be in the Norfolk jail on the charge for forgery. The warrant was sworn out by the City Bank here and the New York Police Department is heading the prisoner for the Norfolk authorities.
Detective Rose left here this afternoon for Richmond to get extradition papers from Governor Montague. The cashier of a bank at La Grulla, Texas, has communicated with the Norfolk Police Department saying that McIntyre is wanted there. The Norfolk case involves $200.

BOY RECOMMENDED.
Will Wilson, the sixteen-year-old colored boy who was arrested here ten days ago upon the charge of having murdered C. C. Powers, a white youth in Mayock, Va., in April, 1904, is still in the Norfolk jail awaiting regulation papers from Raleigh. Police Justice Simmons today recommended the youth for ten days. The two boys were hunting and had a quarrel about a sweet potato, when the negro, Policeman Townley, arrested on the charge of extorting $150 from Ruby Ford to release her sailor husband from the prison ship Southey at Boston, where he is held on a sentence for desertion, failed to find a bondman, and is still in jail unable to make a bond for $250. Chief Bosh denies emphatically that the police-men are collecting money to be used for the defense of Townley or that they are interested in his case otherwise than for justice.

This case is interesting, because he was one of the judges in a recent excited local election, and was rewarded with an office by the good government faction for an election that was contested, and one ward was thrown out.

Pleads Guilty.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—Philip McIntyre, of Nashville, Tenn., today pleaded guilty to the charge of passing a fraudulent check on the Citizens National Bank, of Norfolk, when arraigned in the Tombs Police Court. McIntyre was arrested here several days ago upon the arrival of a steamer, Vera Cruz, charged with passing a worthless draft at a bank in the city of Mexico.

KILLED FOR TEN CENTS.

A Fatal Fight at Guesses Fork, in Buchanan County.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
TASSEL, VA., Jan. 31.—A fatal battle with rocks, pokers and fists, in which one man was killed and several others wounded, occurred on Guesses Fork, in Buchanan county, Sunday between Moses Brannan, Almarie Rife, Harvey Collins and Brannan's wife, over ten cents, which Rife claimed Brannan had not paid in an amount that had been made up by Rife. The fight was first started by Rife, and Brannan, who began pounding each other with their fists.
Harvey Collins, a relative of Brannan, tried to part them and was struck in the neck and rendered unconscious. Brannan's wife attacked him with a poker and he died shortly afterwards. Collins was jailed, the man's wife was arrested of the Carnival.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SUFFOLK, VA., Jan. 31.—Miss Lillie Hines and Frank Alonzo Staylor were married at 4 o'clock this afternoon by Dr. W. W. Staylor at the bride's residence, No. 64 Holliday Street. The bride, who was a factory girl, in a spirited contest last fall, was elected queen of the carnival here, over several society belles, winning by nearly 1,000 votes.

POWHATAN COUNTY.

Thick Ice Gathered—Court Convenes February 6th.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
POWHTAN, VA., Jan. 31.—Everybody in this section have filled their ice-houses with ice from four to six inches thick.
The thermometer has been down as low as six degrees below zero, and the ground is covered with snow about four inches deep.

The Circuit Court will begin here February 6th, with Judge Walter A. Watson presiding. The following petit jurors have been drawn for the term: John W. Aston, S. B. Tucker, R. D. Alhert, H. N. Woodward, W. T. Michaux, T. J. Clements, H. L. Jones, M. N. Bradley, George S.
Jeeter.

Buckingham Bits.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
TOGA, VA., Jan. 31.—The timber industry has been quiet active here for the past few days. There are several saw mills in operation in this section, and the Augusta State and Lumber Company, of Waynesboro, Va., has a large saw plant located here, which gives employment to about thirty men, and, besides this, many haulers are employed in moving their output to millions of miles.

This mill has been in operation for nearly a year, turning out hardwood staves. Much tobacco has been sold this winter on the White Hall Market. This market has been quite a convenience to our people, and the prices received there this season have been very satisfactory.

Much of the tobacco raised in this vicinity has been marketed, and generally at good prices.

Mrs. Annie E. Lewis is at Oak Hill, W.
Va., at this time, visiting her son, J. E.
Lewis, who is a large merchant at that place.

Large Barn Burned.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
VIRGINIA, VA., Jan. 31.—Mr. George T. Owen, who lives within half a mile of this town, lost a large packing barn by fire Saturday night. Three horses, of which one was a valuable stallion, and two mules were burned to death. Mr.
Owen also lost the remainder of his tobacco crop, estimated at from $100 to $200, a large quantity of feed, all his harness and farming implements. All that was saved were two wagons, partly burned.
The loss will amount to about $2,000, with no insurance. As the barn had been closed since feeding time Sunday evening, there is some talk about it having been set on fire.

"Messrs. Fredk. de Bary & Co. brought over last year to this side of the water a greater number of cases of Champagne than has ever hitherto been known, and these importations speak in the strongest terms of the great popular esteem in which G. H. MUMM on Rivers and Harbors and do everything in his power to have it embodied in the river and harbor bill.

JUDGE KEILEY

As He Was Known and Admired in Petersburg.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., Jan. 31.—Judge A.
M. Keiley, whose death in Paris was announced here yesterday, was for many years one of the most distinguished citizens of this city. He was the son of Mr.
John D. Keiley, who for many years held a conspicuous place in this community as a teacher and a man of affairs. Judge Keiley was born about 1830 in New Jersey, and when quite young was brought to Petersburg by his parents, who were natives of Ireland. He was very carefully educated and was prepared for the bar, but soon gave up the profession of law editor of the News, which he edited with ability and success for many years. He was a member of the grand jury and his brilliant talents soon won a distinguished position in the editorial world.
